In accordance with the terms of Article 13 of Italian Legislative Decree No. 196/2003 (the Italian Data Protection Act), we hereby provide you with the following information:

a) The details that you supply will be processed for corporate purposes that are essential to, or associated with, the running of our business, such as for example (although not limited to) the following purposes:

1. to ensure compliance with legal obligations
2. to meet requirements relating to the establishment or termination of a commercial relationship and/or activities inherent to said relationship
3. to fulfil administrative or accounting requirements

The processing of the details will be carried out using tools that are capable of guaranteeing the security and confidentiality of the details as per the provisions of the aforementioned legislation. The processing operations may be carried out manually or through the deployment of automated tools that are used for storing, managing or transmitting the details.

b) You are hereby informed that withholding your consent for your details to be processed could make it impossible to establish and/or implement and/or terminate commercial and contractual relationships between you and our company. Failure to actively withhold your consent will be interpreted as the valid granting of consent for the purposes set out in this privacy statement.

c) The personal details you supply may be disclosed to:

1. Financial organisations
2. Debt-recovery companies
3. Professional firms and consultancy firms
4. Public-sector financial bodies

d) We hereby inform you that the Data Manager for the aforementioned processing operations is the company's legal representative, whereas the person responsible in relation to the purposes set out in Article 7 of the Italian Data Protection Act is the company's managing director.

Please read the content of Article 7 of the Italian Data Protection Act, which sets out the rights of the Data Subject (i.e. you) in relation to the processing of your personal details.
